

RED ROAD RETREATS AND LUMERIA MAUI HOST CEU INTERIOR DESIGN WORKSHOP, APRIL 12-16

Los Angeles, CA...March , 2013...Red Road Retreats, headed by Lori Tierney, IIDA and Principal at Los Angeles-based Unisource Solutions, Inc., announced today that Red Road Retreats and Lumeria Maui are sponsoring and hosting a CEU Design Workshop for contract furniture industry interior designers, April 12-16, 2013, at Lumeria Maui, an ecological retreat designed, owned and managed by Xorin Balbes, award-winning architectural conservator, designer, philanthropist, and author. Sponsors also include Haworth, Bentley Prince Street, Interior Removal Specialists and Dwell Magazine.

“This is a unique design event,” commented Tierney. “The spirit of the time we will be spending together is to provide our guests with a low key opportunity to learn and put into practice Xorin’s SoulSpace process as illustrated in his book, Soul Space, an introduction to feng shui, yoga/meditation, network with colleagues, renew existing relationships and meet some new friends.”

Activities will include vinyasa flow yoga, and meditation taught by Andres Salcedo, an accomplished yoga teacher and leader of Kirtan. Andres teaches regularly at both Power Yoga and Bhakti Yoga Shala in Santa Monica. A sunset journey to Haleakela crater and Lomi-Lomi treatments courtesy of Lumeria Maui and a night of ecstatic Kirtan round out the event offering.
